TOPIC

Collective Bargaining Agreement for Beluga Power Plant Culinary Employees

DISCUSSION

Consistent with the Board of Directors scoping process, management negotiated a collective bargaining agreement extension with Unite HERE Local 878, representing the Beluga Power Plant Culinary Employees. The extension agreement expires June 30, 2013. Substantive changes to the agreement include increases in health and welfare contributions and the duration of the agreement; there are no changes to wage rates, pension contributions or work rules. The tentative agreement and anticipated costs were posted on March 31, 2010 providing for the 28 day posting period as required by Board Policy 135.

MOTION

Move that the Board of Directors approve the attached Collective Bargaining Agreement extension covering the terms and conditions of employment for Beluga Power Plant Culinary Employees bargaining unit personnel represented by Unite HERE Local 878.
