

Unified System Operations Reception ~ July 26, 2007 Anchorage, Alaska

You are invited to a reception at the offices of the Alaska Energy Authority (AEA). Stakeholders of the Unified System Operations Project will have an opportunity to share information about the progress and current status of the USO Project.

Other events are being planned to ensure the successful continuation of the Unified Systems Operation Project and to gather input from Railbelt Utilities and Stakeholders to optimize the effectiveness of these events.

The reception will provide an opportunity for networking and communication among Stakeholders in an informal setting.

Experts have been invited to help answer technical questions and AEA staff will be available to provide additional information.
