4. The Chugach Election Committee organizes in January and serves through the Annual Meeting in May. On the day of the Annual Meeting, committee members are typically needed from approximately noon until the conclusion of the meeting. The committee also holds a follow-up meeting, usually during the week following the Annual Meeting. Would this schedule interfere with your availability?

6. What experience have you had with boards or commissions, including the Chugach Board, which would aid you in working with elections?
